April 13, 2010 End of Year Party

Due to Construction, the date for “A Bad Year for Tomatoes” directed by Penny Petersen has been changed from March 13 – 19, 2010 to: April 27 – May 1, 2010

Thank you!

Dave and MaryAnn Stevens would like to thank all of the community theater people who sent cards and otherwise expressed their condolences following the death of Dave's son, John.

The East Valley Drama Group, EVDG, is again this season presenting its Annual Drama Festival. This year's event will feature performances by five of our member resorts. The event will take place at Leisure World on Saturday, March 27. The performances will begin at 10:00 am and conclude about 5:00 pm. Lunch can be purchased at the festival for $6.00

Participating resorts include: Venture Out, Greenfield Village, Fountain of the Sun, Leisure World and Sun Lakes. Sun Lakes will also present a special performance for children, "Horton Hatches an Egg". In addition to "Horton Hatches an Egg", SLCT will present a reading from the upcoming Spring play, "A Bad Year for Tomatoes". Tickets representing a $5.00 donation can be purchased from your local EVDG representative. Or, you may contact your resort's drama club.

Mark the date on your calendar for an extremely enjoyable day.

Fall Play Announced

Sun lakes Community Theatre's fall play will be Agatha Christie's murder mystery, The Mousetrap. The play runs from Nov. 9 through the 13th. Sandy Pallett will be directing with Grace Geisinger as Assistant Director.

The cast calls for five men and three women. Auditions will be held May 4 in the San Tan Ballroom from 4 until everyone gets a chance to audition.

Rehearsals will begin September 15 at 4pm in the San Tan Ballroom. There will be three rehearsals each week...Tues, Wed. and Thursday. If needed, additional days will be added toward the end of October.

This is an interesting play with very interesting characters. It has run in London for the last 58 years.... longest running play in history. If you are not interested in auditioning but would like to get involved, your talents will be needed in other areas. For more information call Sandy Pallet
