SLCT is a Well-Wired Organization

Please visit the SLCT website at <http://www.slctinfo.com/>. It has information on upcoming productions, club history, past productions, photo slideshows, and much more. It even has a Resources page full of links to job descriptions of all SLCT roles, our bylaws, and other important information. It also has a button on the home page to connect you to our Facebook account and a button that points to an up-to-date calendar of scheduled SLCT events. If you have ever had a question about anything in SLCT, this is the place to go. See you there.

SUMMER WITH THE IMPROVABLES!

The ImproVables, SLCT's very own improv group, has been valiantly soldiering on through heat and wind and monsoons - laughing our way through summer! Yes, we valiant 15 (except for various vacations) have been meeting and rehearsing once a week throughout the summer and it has been a cool refuge for us all.

We all look forward to Monday mornings when we meet at Cottonwood and work on warm ups and old and new improv scenes and games. It is a wonderful way to start the week!

On August 24, those of us who were in town took a "field trip." We went out to dinner and to see the National Comedy Theater improv troupe in Mesa. We had a fun evening and were gratified to note that we are on the right track with our comedy.

We continue to work and laugh every Monday. (Sometimes we are laughing just to ourselves as we wander around Sun Lakes, but that's another story). We have booked a few gigs for this upcoming year and we are available

If interested, call Phyllis Novy, or Howard and Andrea Hummel.

Jeanne Schwan has resigned as Treasurer, we're looking for someone to fill that position. (Board)

MURDER AT CAFE NOIR

An interactive Mystery Dinner Show

by David Landau

If you liked 'Casablanca' you will like this show. However, this one includes a lot of laughs, suspense, murder, music, and of course, romance featuring Rick Archer, a Private Investigator, who comes to an island in the Caribbean to find a runaway that has taken up residency on the small island of Mustique.....a place that is stuck in a black, white and gray era. Don't want to tell you any more, you have to buy a ticket and come for an evening of pure fun.

The show opens in the Oakwood Ballroom and it runs for five nights from October 29 thru November 2. Tickets go on sale October 2 and will be sold up until the show starts. Tickets are $35 for dinner and show.

Doors open at 5pm and show starts at 6:00 pm. You will want to be there early for cocktails and music. To get in the noir mood, wear black, white or gray.

Our wonderful cast for this show consists of (alphabetically), Bob Beck, Barry Berger, Joan Berger, Sharon Guzman, Jim Janowski, Jim McElenney, Diana Nelinson, Phyllis Novy, Jack Perin, Elaine Pilbrow-Cash, Janine Schneck, Linda Shanahan, and Harlie Youngblood.
