“IT TAKES A VILLAGE.....”

Our upcoming first membership meeting of this year is soon approaching. We have some very important items to discuss with the membership and hope to have a large turn out. As an organization that depends on membership support, we invite everyone to take part and encourage new ideas and involvement.

Our board members will be available to answer and explain all areas we need to grow and thrive as a community theatre. It takes many different areas of interest to maintain a successful community theatre and we have positions for everyone! The public is always welcome to come to our meetings to see what our organization has to offer. We are always looking for new talent in all areas of theatre production. Yes, it takes a village!! We also have a few spots left in our Story Telling class, taught by Professional instructor, Karen Burns. See Mary Vandergriff for details and to enroll in this class at the meeting.

Hope to see everyone at the meeting!
