Message From Our President

After many years of editing and publishing the Asides, Sonja White is stepping down. We wish to thank her for all the time and energy she has put into the job! Barry Berger has agreed to step in and attempt to fill her shoes, a major task. I hope everyone who contributes to this bulletin will try and make Barry's job easier by getting their articles in early and not waiting until the last minute like I do.

Sandy Pallett's next Murder/Mystery Dinner theater will be Oct 9-13, 2021 at the Oakwood Ballroom. The name of the show is "Dealt a Deadly Hand, Murder at the Sun Lakes Casino". Tickets MAY still be available by the time you read this, so if you haven't made your purchase, please do so now!

Community Open Houses will be held in Cottonwood on 10/9, Oakwood on 10/19, and Phase One on 10/23. Contact Jo Birlin @ (480) 802-2214 if you want to help man the booths.

Bill Becker has arranged for shirts for any member who needs one, see his article for them for the details.

Auditions for Diana Nelinson's show next March will be held on 10/27/21 in Cottonwood room A6 at 3 PM. See her article for more information.

We are also still planning some classes and some additional sessions of play reading and storytelling.

Our first Live meeting will be on October 14th at Cottonwood's San Tan Ballroom with cocktails at 6:00 and the meeting at 6:30. We ask that everyone who attends has been vaccinated.

Looking forward to seeing all of you soon,

Greg Posniack

Some 45 SLCT members and guests joined together on August 15th at Oakwood's Poolside venue for our annual summer social. For many, it was the first time in months that they were able to catch up in-person with theatre friends. With tasty appetizers, refreshing beverages and sweet treats, friends were able to share a fun and lively evening. We're so appreciative for the great turnout.

Many thanks to Marcia Greene, Pat Wolfe, Judie Janowski, Sandy Pallett, Robin and Lee Murray for their help working behind the scenes to pull off this event.
