

SUN LAKES COMMUNITY THEATRE
GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING
SAN TAN BALLROOM, COTTONWOOD
January 11, 2018 – 6:30pm

Call To Order: Phyllis Novy Called the meeting to order at 6:35pm and welcomed and introduced new members and guests.

Roger Edmonds introduced the representatives of the Hamilton High School Drama Department. The students performed for us and were delightful. We then presented them with a check to support their drama program.

Roger Edmonds then made a report on the status of SLCT's scholarship program.

A call for additions and corrections for the November General Meeting minutes was made. A motion was made and seconded to approve the November minutes, which were unanimously approved.

Treasurers Report: Kathy Jones presented the Treasurers Report for November and December. A motion was made and seconded to approve the reports. Which were unanimously approved.

Announcements: Jacqui Texeira was introduced as a new member of the Hospitality Committee.

Dave Stevens: announced that a sound demonstration will be held on February 15th in the Saguaro Room, Cottonwood.

Phyllis Novy: rereported on the Holiday Party. The dinner party at Palo Verde had 64 attendees who tripped the light fantastic with good food and were entertained by Jared Howe who also provided dance tunes.

MJ Clement and Norm Harris: spoke about the upcoming lighting class on January 29th at 1 to 2:30pm in the San Tan Ballroom.

Sandy Pallett: spoke about the spring show, "Murder At The Tony-Lou Awards Show", and introduced the cast and crew.

Sandy Boysnesky: announced the Children's Theater production of "Horton Hatches An Egg" and introduced the cast and crew. They will perform for grades K-1st at 22 schools this season.

Andrea Hummel: reported on the upcoming fall show, "Twelve Angry Jurors", directed by Howard Hummel. She also spoke about the successful dinner and Improvables show on January 5th at Oakwood which had 160 patrons and mentioned the future Improvables shows.

Pat Wolfe: spoke about the Fun Script Reading Group. The next play to be read will be "You Can't Take It With You".

Jim Janowski: discussed the Board elections coming up in March, and mentioned the rewards and commitments of being on the Board.

Phyllis Novy for Carol Horowitz: announced the "February Love-In" theme for next month's meeting. She asked for volunteers to sing love songs, read a love poem, do a skit about love, etc., for that meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:45pm.